What will you learn?

Successful participants will be able to learn to:

- ◆ Identify Risks and Evaluate Hazards
- ◆ Use appropriate precautions for specific risks or seek advice on precautions
- ◆ Assist managers in preparing written risk assessments
- ◆ Follow their organization's safety policy
- ◆ Co-operate and communicate on health and safety matters
- ◆ Carry out activities without risk
- ◆ Report relevant accidents and incidents, monitor their own activities and assist
- ◆ Prevent and minimize personal injuries
- ◆ Identify the effects of different times of the day on workers' performance

Very Informative and a Must Do for all Employees of a Company. I have not seen such a complete HSE trainings package being offered by any other company. Another specialty was that the local language was also used for our workforce group that did not understand English very well. Hence the effectiveness was increased many folds

Mr Abdul Rauf: HSE Manager FMCG Pakistan
